

WHAT TO EXPECT WHEN YOU ATTEND A FOOTBALL GAME AT MEMORIAL STADIUM

- Game tickets will be limited to 3500 total spectators. Once the limited number of tickets are sold, we will not allow anyone else to enter the stadium.
- Student tickets will still be available for free but limited to 10% of the student population. Once the free tickets are gone, additional students may purchase a general admission ticket.
- 62+ passes will be honored. Please present identification at the gate. However, once the limited capacity is reached, no additional spectators will be admitted.
- SCHSL passes will be accepted at the gate. The pass must be presented at the gate.
- Due to limited capacity, we will only honor 25 SCHSL passes to each game.
- Varsity Football tickets are $7. Junior Varsity tickets are $5. No refunds are available with the purchase of your ticket(s).
- Stadium Road, as well as the gates to Memorial Stadium, will not be open until 6:00 PM.
- Due to COVID-19 regulations, tailgating or congregating in the parking lot areas will not be permitted.
- You must wear a mask while on Memorial Stadium's grounds. Please be prepared to be asked to exit the premises without a refund if you are not wearing your mask.
- You will not be allowed to exit and re-enter the stadium.
- Elementary and middle school age students must be accompanied into the stadium by a parent or guardian.

CONCESSION STAND

- There will be no food or drinks sold at Memorial Stadium. Spectators may bring their own food or drink.
- No coolers, large bags, or baskets will be allowed in the stadium.
- No alcoholic beverages will be allowed on the premises.
- No tailgating is allowed before, during, or after a game.
